PREFACE.

THE necessity for a complete and reliable Law List of the Province has prompted the publication of the present volume. No pains have been spared to render the contents as full and accurate as it was possible to make them. The Compiler has met with many obstacles in the accomplishment of his task, owing to the great difficulty in obtaining information, from principally outside practitioners. Nothing has been omitted which was considered as useful in a work of this kind, and much new matter has been introduced. It is offered to the Profession in the hope that it may in some degree supply an existing want; and in doing so, the Compiler would ask forbearance for any mistakes or omissions which have accidentally or unintentionally occurred in the composition.

in appeals (1) from the Exchequer Court; (2) from the Provincial Courts; (3) in habeas corpus cases; and (4) in election cases. The Judges reside at Ottawa, where the Supreme Court annually holds two Sessions, which begin respectively on the third Monday in January and June in each year. Five Judges constitute a quorum for the purposes of the Court.

THE EXCHEQUER COURT, presided over by the same Judges as the Supreme Court, possesses a concurrent original jurisdiction in the Dominion of Canada in all cases in which it is sought to enforce any law of the Dominion relating to the revenue, and exclusive original jurisdiction in all cases in which demand is made or relief sought in respect of any matter which might in England be the subject of a suit or action in the Court of Exchequer on its revenue side against the Crown or any of its officers. It also possesses concurrent original jurisdiction with the Courts of the several Provinces in all other suits of a civil or criminal nature at common law or equity, in which the Crown, in the interest of the Dominion of Canada, is plaintiff or petitioner, and, (where the Legislature of any Province shall have passed an Act providing that the Court alone shall have jurisdiction) in the following cases:—(1) Controversies between the Dominion and such Province. (2) Controversies between such Province and any other Province which has passed such an Act.

COURT OF APPEAL.

CHIEF JUSTICE.

Hon. Thomas Moss.

PUISNE JUDGES.

Hon. George William Burton.

Hon. Christopher Salmon Patterson.

Hon. Joseph Curran Morrison,

Registrar—Alexander Grant.

Reporter—J. Stewart Tupper.

This Court consists of a Chief Justice and three Puisne Justices, appointed under Rev. Stat. Ont. ch. 40, and also of the Judges of the Superior Courts of Common Law and Equity, for the time being, (who are ex officio Judges of the Court in certain cases,) as hereinafter mentioned. It exercises jurisdiction in the hearing of appeals in civil and criminal cases from the Courts of Queen's Bench, and Common Pleas; in cases from the Court of Chancery; in Election cases; in appeals from the County and Surrogate Courts; in appeals from Stipendiary Magistrates, as provided by Rev. Stat. Ont., ch. 90, sec. 25; and in Insolvency proceedings. From the judgment of this Court, an appeal lies to the Supreme Court of Canada in appeals from the Superior Courts of Law and Equity, or to Her Majesty in Privy Council in cases over $4,000, or where annual or other rent, duty, fee, or the demand of a general or public nature affecting future rights of any amount. The Judges of this Court, in addition to their appellate duties, also take part in presiding over Courts of Assize and Nisi Prius, and of Oyer and Terminer, and holding Chancery Sittings, and may be placed on the rota for the trial of Election Petitions with the Judges of the Superior Courts of Law and Equity, who, as ex officio Judges of this Court, choose from their number a Judge or Judges to sit in appeal, in case of there being a vacancy in this Court, or if from illness or other cause one of the Judges of the Court is unable to be present, or is under any legal disqualification to hear an appeal. Recent Statutes provide that no sitting of the Court shall be held, unless four of the Judges are present, when the appeal is from one of the Superior Courts; nor unless three Judges be present where the appeal is from a County or Surrogate Court Judge or Stipendiary Magistrate.

The Court sits on the second Tuesday in January, the first Tuesday in March, the second Tuesday in May, the first Tuesday in September, and the second Tuesday in November in each year; and in Insolvency proceedings, appeals are heard by a single Judge (sitting for the full Court) on every Tuesday.

There are two Vacations of the Court each year: the Long Vacation extending from the 1st of July to the 31st of August, and the Christmas Vacation from the 24th of December to the 2nd of January following.

LAW SOCIETY OF UPPER CANADA.

The Law Society of Upper Canada was established in 1797, by the Act 37 George III. cap. 13, which enabled the then Practitioners of the Law to form themselves into a society "for the purpose of securing to the country and the profession a learned and honourable body, to assist their fellow subjects, as occasion may require, and to support and maintain the Constitution of the Province." This, however, was not the first Act relating to the profession of the law in Upper Canada, the Ordinance of Quebec (29 Geo. III. cap. 4) being prior to the Act of 1797, which established the Law Society. This Ordinance, however, continued in force in Lower Canada until 1849. In 1822, by the Act 2 George III. cap. 5, the Society was incorporated, and its functions vested in the Treasurer and Benchers for the time being, who were elected according to the by-laws of the Society, much in the same manner as in the Law Societies of England. This mode of government continued till 1871, when by the Act 34 Vic. ch. 15 (Rev. Stat. Ont. ch. 138), the Benchers were made, exclusive of ex officio members, elective by the Bar, the ex officio consisting of the Attorney General of Canada for the time being, and all who have held that office, if a member of the Ontario Bar, the Attorney General of Ontario, and all who have held that office, and all members of the Bar of Ontario who have at any time held the office of Attorney or Solicitor General of the former province of Upper Canada, and any retired Judge of the Superior Courts of Law or Equity of Ontario; the elective, thirty in number, being chosen by ballot, for a term of five years, by the members of the Bar, in manner prescribed by the Act. Vacancies during the five years' term are filled by the remaining Benchers. The Judges of the Superior Courts are Visitors of the Society. C. S. U. C. c. 35, s. 32.

38. Such Officer may certify specially any circumstances relating to such bill or taxation, and the Court or Judge may thereupon make such order as may be deemed right respecting the payment of the costs of the taxation. C. S. U. C. c. 35, s. 33.

39. In case such reference be made when the same is not authorized, except under special circumstances as hereinbefore provided, the Court or Judge, in making the same, may give any special directions relative to the costs of the reference. C. S. U. C. c. 35, s. 34.

40. Where no bill has been delivered, sent or left as aforesaid, and where such bill, if delivered, sent or left, might have been referred as aforesaid, any such Court or Judge may order the delivery of a bill, and may also order the delivery up of deeds or papers in the possession, custody or power of the Attorney or Solicitor, his Assignee or representatives, in the same manner as has heretofore been done in cases where any such business had been transacted in the Court in which such Order was made. C. S. U. C. c. 35, s. 35.

41. In proving a compliance with this Act it shall not be necessary in the first instance to prove the contents of the bill delivered, sent or left, but it shall be sufficient to prove that a bill of fees, charges or disbursements subscribed in the manner aforesaid, or enclosed in or accompanied by such letter as aforesaid, was delivered, sent or left in manner aforesaid; but the other party may shew that the bill so delivered, sent or left, was not such a bill as constituted a bona fide compliance with this Act. C. S. U. C. c. 35, s. 36.

42. Any Judge of the Superior Courts of Law or Equity, or a County Judge, on proof to his satisfaction that there is probable cause for believing that the party chargeable is about to quit Ontario, may authorize an Attorney or Solicitor to commence an action for the recovery of his fees, charges or disbursements against the party chargeable therewith, although one month has not expired since the delivery of a bill as aforesaid. C. S. U. C. c. 35, s. 37.

43. When any person not being chargeable as the principal party is liable to pay or has paid any bill either to the Attorney or Solicitor, his assignee, or representative, or to the principal party entitled thereto, the party so paying, his assignee or representative, may make the like application for a reference thereof to taxation and in like manner as the party chargeable therewith might himself have made, and the same proceedings shall be had thereupon, as if such application had been made by the party so chargeable. C. S. U. C. c. 35, s. 38.

44. In case such application is made when, under the provisions hereinbefore contained a reference is not authorized to be made except under special circumstances, the Court or Judge to whom the application is made, may take into consideration any additional special circumstances applicable to the person making it, although such circumstances might not be applicable to the party chargeable with the bill, if he was the party making the application. C. S. U. C. c. 35, s. 39.

45. For the purpose of any such reference upon the application of the person not being the party chargeable, or of a party interested as aforesaid, such Court or Judge may order the Attorney or Solicitor, his assignee or representative, to deliver to the party making the application a copy of the bill, upon payment of the costs of the copy. C. S. U. C. c. 35, s. 40.

46. No bill previously taxed shall be again referred, unless under the special circumstances of the case the Court or Judge to whom the application is made thinks fit to direct a retaxation thereof. C. S. U. C. c. 35, s. 41.

47. The payment of any such bill as aforesaid shall in no case preclude the Court or Judge to whom the application is made from referring such bill for taxation, if the application is made within twelve months after payment, and if the special circumstances of the case in the opinion of such Court or Judge appear to require the same, upon such terms and subject to such directions as to the Court or Judge seem right. C. S. U. C. c. 35, s. 42.

48. In all cases in which a bill is referred to be taxed, the officer to whom the reference is made, may request the proper officer of any other Court, to assist him in taxing any part of such bill, and such officer, so requested, shall thereupon tax the same, and shall have the same powers, and may receive the same fees in respect thereof, as upon a reference to him by the Court of which he is such officer, and he shall return the bill, with his opinion thereon, to the officer who so requests him to tax the same. C. S. U. C. c. 35, s. 43.

49. All applications made to refer any bill to be taxed, or for the delivery of a bill, or for the delivering up of deeds, documents and papers, shall be made "In the matter of such Attorney or Solicitor"; and upon the taxation of any such bill, the certificate of the officer by whom the bill is taxed shall (unless set aside or altered by order of a Judge, or by decree or rule of Court,) be final and conclusive as to the amount thereof, and payment of the amount certified to be

RORER ON JUDICIAL SALES: by Judge Rorer, 2nd edition, pp. 665, 8 vo., price $6.50 net. A Treatise on the law of Judicial and Execution Sales.

The text of this work is a concise statement of the law from decided cases, and in a large measure in the precise words of the Court giving the opinion. It treats of the subject matter in a comprehensive, logical, and well arranged manner. To lawyers in active practice the work will be of extreme value, and a most important aid to sheriffs and others, into whose hands the execution of the final process of the Courts are entrusted. A now complete exhaustive index has been added, and the arrangement of the book is all that could be desired.

HIGH ON EXTRAORDINARY LEGAL REMEDIES:

by James L. High, 8 vo., pp. 672, price $7.50.

This work embraces the three extraordinary legal remedies of Mandamus, Quo Warranto and Prohibition, each of which subjects is exhaustively treated in detail, thus presenting three separate and independent treatises, complete in each. It embodies all the decisions both English and American down to a very recent date. The author presents his subject in a clear, orderly, and scientific manner, and with the copious and well arranged index, any desired topic may be at once found. The work bears the evidence of great care and research and a determination to make it as accurate and perfect as possible.

HIGH ON RECEIVERS: by Jas. L. High, 8 vo., pp. 650, price $7.50.

This work, by the same author as the above, embraces both the English and American decisions upon the important subject of Receivers, their Duties, Functions, Powers, Rights of Action, etc., and is the first attempt ever made by any author to present the entire English law on the subject. The decisions embrace those from the earliest time downwards, besides a large number of cases, and also many which are not accessible generally to the profession. The work is in every way worthy of the attention of the profession from the high reputation enjoyed by the author as a legal writer, his systematic method of treatments and unusual accuracy, both in citation and statement.

HIGH ON INJUNCTIONS: by Jas. L. High, 8 vo., pp. 642, price $7.50.

The Treatise embraces both the English and American Law upon the law of Injunctions as administered in England and the United States. The work has been carefully made and well digested. The citations are abundant, and but little of the author's personal opinion is introduced, almost every sentence is annotated with an authority. The subject matter is treated in an exhaustive manner, and cannot fail to be of great value.

COOLEY ON TAXATION: by Hon. T. M. Cooley, 1876, 8 vo., pp. 741, price $7.50.

The information at the command of the profession in this subject is exceedingly meagre, owing, no doubt, to the obtruse character of the subject. The author, who has made the subject of limitations of legislative power his study has dealt with the subject in a clear and concise manner, so as to make his book the standard work on the subject, presenting as it does, in a shape for practical use, the general rules which must govern the action of all authorities acting in matters of taxation.

EWELL ON FIXTURES: by Marshall D. Ewell, 1876, 8 vo., pp. 600, price $6.00.

A treatise upon the right to things annexed, either actively or constructively to the realty; and upon other property partaking both of a real and personal nature, comprising the law of emblements, and other species of property analogous to fixtures. The scope of the work involves the presentation of the law on the subject, as deduced from the English and American reports. The plan and classifications are the same as those adopted in Ferar or Fixtures, with which the profession are familiar. Mr. Ewell has added several chapters, thus increasing the value of the work. The matter has been well handled, and a copious index and table of cases renders any reference easy work.

WADE ON NOTICE: by Wm. P. Wade, 1876, 8 vo. pp. 667, price $6.50.

Mr. Wade has presented to the legal profession, in his work, a most valuable treatise on the Law of Notice, both actual and constructive, embracing the rights and liabilities of Purchasers, Principals and Agents, Landlords and Tenants, etc., including the mode by which Liabilities are created, modified and extinguished, with a statement of the law as affecting the dishonor of Commercial Paper, Publications of Notices, and all other acts in which Notice is essential or important. References are made to the latest English and American cases, bearing on the points referred to. A complete Index, and Table of Cases, adds to the value of the work.

SANSUM'S DIGEST OF THE LAW OF INSURANCE:

by Oliver B. Sansum, 1876, 8 vo. pp. 1682, price $8.00.

This work contains an Analysis and Digest of the Law of Insurance—Accident, Fire, Life & Marine; embracing all the cases in the Courts of Great Britain, Canada, and the United States from the earliest period to the present time. In nearly all the cases the author has stated the facts, upon which the question was raised, an advantage to Judges or Lawyers who are far from large libraries. It has also this advantage, that it enables the working lawyer, to determine at a glance, whether the case adjudged will support that which is to be adjudged; and, in not a few instances, the reasons of the Court are set forth. Mr. Sansum has accomplished a difficult and laborious task and his work on Insurance, being so thorough and complete, will long remain a standard work on this important subject.

Publications of J. & W. JOHNSON & Co., Philadelphia.

FEARNE ON CONTINGENT REMAINDERS: by W.

M. Coleman, 12 mo., pp. 104, 1878.

This little work is intended to be a full and complete abstract of Fearn's, and is to serve as an introduction to the Original Work. It is designed primarily for the use of Students, but will also be of value to lawyers engaged in active practice. It contains all of Fearn's principles separately and distinctly set forth. The book is well adapted for the purpose for which it was established, and student would do well to have it by them. The work treats of Contingent Remainders and Executory Devises.

SMITH ON CONTRACTS: by J. W. Smith and Wm. H.

H. Rawle, 6th edition, 8 vo., pp. 543, 1878, price $5.50.

This is the American reprint from the English Work, with some additional notes and references to recent American cases, by Hon. Geo. Sharswood. This work has rapidly been introduced as a Text book, in the various Law Schools in the United States, and has also been adopted by the Upper Canada Law Society. The compact and luminous manner in which the various topics are presented, are such that the merest tyro in law cannot fail to comprehend them. For purposes of instruction the work can scarcely be excelled.

Publication of JOHN LOVELL, Montreal.

QUEBEC LAW DIGEST: by C. H. Stephens, B. C. L.,

Royal 8 vo., pp. 1470, 1878, price $16.75.

This work is a complete compilation of all the reported decisions in the Province of Quebec down to the first January, 1877, analytically digested and arranged, with constant reference to the codes and statutes thereto. This companion Volume, in the Jurisprudence of the Sister Province, to Robinson and Joseph's Ontario Digest of Cases, adds another important work of reference to the Legal Literature of Canada. Few Libraries of the Ontario Legal Profession contain Lower Canada Reports, or any of the Legal Serials, in French or in English, issued in the Province of Quebec. The necessity for, at least, a Digest of the reported Decisions of these publications, is therefore, apparent; while to those whose Libraries do embrace the Reports of Lower Canada, the use of this Key to them is equally important. The scope of the Digest may be gathered from the extent of the References in the work to the following publications and Reports, viz.: To the Code Civil Procédure; Consolidated Statutes of Lower Canada; The Quebec Insolvent Act; Lower Canada Jurist; Lower Canada Law Journal; Lower Canada Reports; Municipal Code; Quebec Law Reports; Quebec Statutes; Stuart's Vice-Admiralty Cases, &c., &c. The work is completed throughout in English. The arrangement of the book is admirable, and the mechanical "get up" all that can be desired.

Publications of SOULE, THOMAS & WENTWORTH, St. Louis.

BISHOP ON CONTRACTS: by Joel Prentiss Bishop, 8 vo., pp. 386, 1878, price $1.50.

A very complete and well written exposition of the law, relating to Contracts arranged in simple and compact language and illustrating the essential doctrines of the law of Contracts. The references are mostly, but not exclusively to American cases. The work will be found useful to the profession, "not as containing the whole space, in plain terms and in a new order, but what is most useful to all."

DIGEST OF THE LAW OF EVIDENCE: by Jas.

Fitzjames Stephens, Q. C., pp. 226, 1876, price $1.50.

All epitomes of the law of evidence published in handy-volume form, and presented in a clear and concise style, illustrating the principles by examples, and supported by a carefully selected citation of the leading authorities. A most admirable little book.

DIGEST OF THE CRIMINAL LAW: by Sir James Fitz-james Stephens, Q. C., pp. 424, 1877, price $2.50.

"This Digest is meant to be a complete statement of the whole of what I may call the working Criminal Law. Upon the whole, this Digest is intended to give the whole of the law relating to each of these every-day offences which commonly occur in the administration of justice, as fully and as shortly as is consistent with accuracy I do not venture to say that it is quite complete, for the subject is so intricate and difficult that it would be to make such an assertion; but I do assert that it deals with every part of the substantive Criminal Law (as distinguished from the law of Criminal Procedure) which is dealt with in the text books in common use, such as Russell on Crimes, Roscoe's Criminal Evidence, Archibald's Criminal Pleading, and the like; and with some others, which, for various reasons, they omit. The comparative brevity of the work has been obtained by the double process of extracting principles from cases—the facts being stated in the form of illustrations of the principles—and condensing the statutes."—From the Preface.

DIGEST OF THE LAW OF PARTNERSHIP: by

Frederick Pollock, pp. 169, 1898, price $1.25.

The plan of this work follows that of "Stephen's Digest of the Law of Evidence," in presenting condensed but clear statements of principles, enforced by special illustrations. For a clearer idea of the book, we extract from the preface:

"The present work has been undertaken, in the first place, to supply the want of a concise work on the law of partnership. * * * The law of partnership is in many ways a specially convenient subject for the treatment here adopted. It has, in common with the law of evidence, the qualities of being of modern growth, homogeneous and, for the most part, well settled. It is remarkably free from anomalies and technicalities, and has been singularly fortunate in the national character of its development. * * * Following Sir James Stephen's example, I have arrived at fixing the limits of the subject matter so as to exclude all merely collateral topics.

Publications of McMILLAN & CO., New York.

ELEMENTS OF ROMAN LAW BY GAIUS, WITH TRANSLATION AND COMMENTARY: by Edward Poste, M. A., 8 vo., cloth, pp. 690, 1875, price $7.50.

Mr. Poste's Commentary shows that he has read much and that he has digested what he read. It is learned, searching and suggestive. The author has given us an admirable version, and though he has used a paraphrase where the sentence could be literally translated, it is allowable, because the paraphrase is the truest rendition of the idea intended to be conveyed by the original.

LIBERTY OF THE SUBJECT.—SECURITY OF THE PERSON: by Jas. Paterson, M. A., 2 vo., 12 mo. cloth, 1877, price $10.

These works are commentaries on the Laws of England, which relate to these most important topics. They contain a general introduction to the subject of Law, discussing the current distinctions and divisions, as well as subjecting the details to a more natural method than has hitherto been followed. The division relating to Security of the Person, is exhibited in complete detail, shewing how the law guards personal freedom at every point, and what are the leading changes through which the law has passed. The subject is treated of in a comprehensive, clear and withal in a readable manner by K. E. Digby, M. A., of Lincoln's Inn, 12 mo. cloth, pp. 312, price $3.00.

HISTORY OF THE LAW OF REAL PROPERTY :

Mr. Digby's admirable book is a most important contribution to the investigation of that vast and unexplored province of research, the English Law. The author states that his object in undertaking the work was to attempt in some degree to supply a want felt in the English Universities of some elementary text book on this important subject and to explain the leading principles of the law as it exists by reference to its history.

ELEMENTS OF LAW, considered with reference to principles of General Jurisprudence by Wm. M. Markby, M. A., 2nd edition, 12 mo. pp. 286, 1877, price $3.00.

The author, who was Judge of the High Court of Judicature, at Calcutta, states that the work is in the form of lectures, delivered in 1870, to some Hindoo and Mohammedan Law Students at Calcutta in 1870. To indicate the scope of the work a glance at the contents will suffice, viz., General Conception and sources of Law; Liability; Ownership; Possession, Servitudes or Assessments—Prescription and Limitation; Remedies; Procedure; Transfer; Security; Succession.

Publications of COPE, CLARK & CO., Toronto.

REVISED SCHOOL LAW. Parts I. and II: by J. Geo. Hodgins, LL. D., Deputy Minister of Education, Ont., pp. 281. Price, Part I., limp cloth, 75 cents; Part I. and II. limp cloth, $1.50.

These are the substance of Lectures delivered to Normal School Students. It is a full and complete Treatise on the Revised School Law and Regulations, relating to the powers and duties of Municipal Councils of Counties, Townships, Villages, Towns and Cities, and of Boards of Public School Trustees in these Municipalities, and of Assessors, Collectors, Auditors, Teachers and Arbitrators. The work is full and complete in all particulars, and indicates clearly the powers and duties of the classes mentioned above, and in this respect is an invaluable hand-book to all concerned. The work also contains a carefully and well prepared Digest of Decisions of the Superior Courts on School matters, which renders it useful to the Legal Profession.

Publications of JOHN D. PARSONS, Albany.

COMMENTARIES ON THE LAWS OF ENGLAND :

by Herbert Broom, LL. D., and Edward A. Hadley, M. A., 2 vols., 8 vo., pp. 1739, 1875, price $13.00.

These Commentaries on the Laws of England pursue the order adopted, and containing much of the matter to be found in Sir W. Blackstone's celebrated works. Since Blackstone was written, such extensive changes have been made in the English Law that it has been found necessary to re-write the entire work for the use of English Students and Lawyers. This task was assumed by the authors of these volumes and well have they fulfilled their task. The legal works written by Herbert Brown are so familiar to the profession, and so universally recognised as among the very first in regard to legal learning and accuracy that no further recommendation is necessary for any work which he may undertake. Excessive care has been evidently taken with these commentaries in their compilation. The object of the authors being to furnish the Student and Practitioner, with the English Law as it at presents exists, and this information will be found in the text of the work itself, instead of being scattered through numerous and voluminous notes. The following heads indicate the scope of the work. Law of Real Property and Equity. Actions at Law; Jurisdiction and Practice of the Divorce and Matrimonial Courts; Probate Court; Court of Admiralty and Ecclesiastical Courts; Courts of Equity, their Jurisdiction and Procedure; Redress of Private Wrongs by operation of law.

Publications of W. J. GILBERT, St. Louis.

LAW OF CORPORATE SECURITIES: by G. C. Clemens, pp. 283, 1877, price $3.00.

The object of this work is to give, in systematic shape, the law of Municipal and Railroad Securities. The author has not burdened his reader with a large amount of notes, but has sought to call attention to principles, and has only referred to cases, for proof of them. Mr. Clemens deserves much credit for the admirable little book which he has placed in the hands of the profession. The work is divided into two parts, viz.: (1) Municipal Securities, (2) Railroad Securities.

UNITED STATES SUPREME COURT REPORTS, INDEX: by Wm. G. Meyer, pp. 536, 1879, price $5.00.

This work is an Index or Summary Digest of all the reported decisions of the United States Supreme Court, from the organization of the Court to the present date. The peculiar merit of the work consists in the ease and certainty with which any points of law decided by the Supreme Court may be found, and in this particular it will prove superior to a Digest, inasmuch as each item or entry is repeated under each title suggested by the subject matter.

Publications of SUMNER, WHITNEY & CO., San Francisco.

PROFATT ON JURY TRIAL: by John Profatt, LL. B. 8 vo., 608, 1877.

This treatise, including an Introductory Chapter on the Origin and History of Jury Trial, is an attempt to give the law applicable to all proceedings connected with the Jury, from its selection to its discharge. This is the first work of its kind, and Mr. Profatt deserves much credit for the able manner in which he has performed the difficult task he undertook. He has given considerable attention to the arrangement and subject matter of the work, which must prove of great value to the profession. The reference to cases are mostly, though not exclusively to the Courts of the United States, though many English precedents are also cited.

MEDICAL JURISPRUDENCE OF INSANITY: by J. H. Balfour Browne, of the Middle Temple, 2nd edition, 8 vo., pp. 713, 1875.

This is the second edition of this valuable work. It has been called for, on account of the favorable manner in which the Legal and Medical press of Great Britain and America received the first. The author states in his preface that the work has been re-written, re-considered and re-arranged. Reference has also been made to all the most important cases which have been decided in Great Britain and America.

LAW OF THE FARM: by A. W. Thompson, 8 vo., pp. 520, 176, 1876.

A treatise on the leading titles of the law involved in Farming business and Litteration. The work gives, tersely, the law applicable to farming, and its kindred pursuits of dairying and stock raising. The author was for two years the Attorney on the several Grange Corporations at San Francisco, and is familiar with the subject of which he treats. He has presented all that appears in the Statutes, Reports and Text Books in the United States, which belongs to "The Law of the Farm."

WEEK'S ON ATTORNEYS-AT-LAW: by Edward P. Weeks, 8 vo., pp. 650, 1878, price $6.00.

A very useful hand-book for the Profession, as it includes the Rules and Legal Principles governing the Vocation of the Lawyer and those applicable to the relation of Attorney and Client. The work is divided into two parts, the first is devoted to a consideration of the Vocation of the Lawyer, and the second, the subjects arising out of the Relation between the Lawyer and his Client. We recommend Mr. Week's work to the profession as one calculated to assist the members to arrive more readily at a just ascertainment of their own right and liabilities, in their relation to the Court and their own Clients.
